R. R. SUPT. LAWS DROPS DEAD AFTER THE COLLISION.

U. S. SOLDIERS HAVE AN EXCITING RIOT IN MONTEREY

JAPANESE CAPTURE GUNS AND MUCH AMMUNITION

TOKIO, October 20.—2 p. m.—It is announced at headquarters here that the left Japanese army captured near Langtoupieh six ammunition cars, 5,354 rifles, 4,920 rounds of field gun ammunition, 78,000 rounds of rifle ammunition and tents, clothing, sabres and implements. Additional casualties of the center army just reached here. Twelve officers were killed and thirty wounded.

DROPPED DEAD ON THE SCENE. REV. C. G. ADAMS TAKES HIS LIFE

Slayer of Dr. K. A. Jessup, of Berkeley, Was Weary of Life.

SACRAMENTO, October 20.—R. J. and Blue Canyon wreckers from Laws, superintendent of the Sacramento division of the Southern Pacific Railroad, and father of Mrs. Dan Belden of Oakland, expired very suddenly this morning from an attack of heart disease, brought on by the excitement caused by the wreck of the train on which he and James Agler, manager, and J. H. Wallace, superintendent of maintenance and way of the Southern Pacific Company, were riding in Mr. Agler's private car.

ON THE TRAIN.
Mr. Laws and the other two railroad officials were returning from Reno and the private car in which they were traveling, was attached to the rear end of a special westbound tourist train. At a small station called Yuba Pass, this train ran into the rear end of an extra westbound freight train. The accident caused great damage, although no human lives were lost or so far as had been ascertained, no one was injured; but as the wreckage started to burn, great excitement prevailed. During this excitement Mr. Laws was stricken down by an attack of heart failure, and he passed away in a very few minutes.

CAUSE OF ACCIDENT.
From the accounts received at the railroad office in this city it appears that the fault of the accident lies with the man in the block station at Crystal Lake. The passenger train was to pass the freight at Yuba Pass, and the man cleared the passenger train before the freight reached the station. The accident occurred about 5 o'clock this morning just as the freight train was backing into a siding in order to let the passenger train go by.

TRAINS CRASH.
Soon after the two trains crashed together the stove in the caboose of the freight train started the wreckage afire and before the flames were extinguished 2200 feet of snowsheds were burned, over 100 heads of cattle in four stock cars were burned alive, the passenger engine, the baggage car and two passenger coaches were also destroyed by fire.

Fire trains were sent from Summit

SAN FRANCISCO, OCTOBER 20.—REV. C. G. ADAMS, FORMERLY AN EPISCOPAL MINISTER, BUT MORE RECENTLY A LAWYER, COMMITTED SUICIDE TODAY BY INHALING ILLUMINATING GAS.

ABOUT TWO AND A HALF YEARS AGO, ADAMS SHOT AND KILLED DR. K. A. JESSUP, A BERKELEY DENTIST. HE WAS DECLARED INSANE AND SENT TO AN ASYLUM. AFTER BEING RELEASED, HE BEGAN THE PRACTICE OF LAW. DESPONDENCY IS THE SUPPOSED CAUSE OF HIS SUICIDE.

LIVED FAIR SEX.
Adams was a man advanced in years, but despite this fact he had an appreciation for the fair sex which prompted him to enjoy the companionship of a woman named Maude Elson, with whom he occupied apartments at 1482 Fulton street in this city.

WOMAN LEAVES.
About a month ago Maude Elson left Adams with the intention, it is understood, of seeking more congenial companionship.

TURNED ON GAS.
Last night, about 5 o'clock, the landlady of the house smelled gas in the upper floor of the structure, and seeking to find where it was escaping, traced it to the room of the Rev. Mr. Adams.

ONCE SAVED.
The landlady turned off the key, whereupon Adams became angry and wanted to know what business the landlady had in his room.

FOUND DEAD.
This morning, escaping gas was again traced to Adams' room. The door was forced and Adams was found dead in bed, having been asphyxiated by the deadly fumes.

Among his effects were several letters of an endearing character, written to him by Maude Elson the woman who had been a companion of his,

and among them was the following: WOMAN'S LETTER.

"Dear Charlie:—I received your note. I am alone. I am sorry I left you the way I did today. I will not go back to that house again. I have done nothing wrong yet. Meet me at the Rock-away tomorrow at 11 a. m."

This letter denoted a penitent spirit on the part of the woman in the case, but it gave little comfort to Adams, because while she expressed regret at having left him, she made no effort to rejoin him.

It is known that Adams wrote a number of letters to the woman but those letters are undoubtedly in her possession.

HIS RELATIVES.
Adams was a nephew of Colonel W. R. Smedburg, a broker of this city, who is well known in business circles.

Among his effects were found two notes amounting to $1700, drawn by Smedburg in favor of Agnes Adams, a sister of the deceased, who lives in New York, $2200 of which was to be invested, according to agreement, in certain enterprises which do not seem to have been raised as first-class investments.

THE CRIME.
The deceased has a brother named W. J. Adams, whose place of business is at 508 California street in this city.

Adams escaped trial in Alameda county because it was shown by his attorney that he was insane. Dr. Jessup was a young man who tried to enter the Rev. Adams' house at Berkeley because he feared the minister's daughter was being ill-treated by her father.

He was told to stand back by Adams, but declined to obey the order, and was killed in the house by the minister.

OFFICERS HONORED.

Admiral Lord Walter Kerr, first Lord of the Admiralty; Captain Prince Louis of Battenburg, director of Naval Intelligence and Sir Thomas Lipton were included in the luncheon party, which was quite of a private and informal character.

RIOT AMONG SOLDIERS.

Fierce Battle in Which One Man is Killed.

MONTEREY, October 20.—Late last night Sergeant Tooley, K Troop, Fourth United States Cavalry, was shot and killed in a house of ill-repute and another member of the same regiment, whose name is not yet known, was dangerously wounded. Their assailants were members of the first squadron, Ninth United States Cavalry, colored. Within an hour after the shooting the house in which it took place was fired by a mob of 100 infuriated soldiers, and was burned to the ground.

Early last evening about 250 members of the Fourth Cavalry, which are to relieve the Ninth Cavalry stationed here, arrived by train. Citizens present at the depot stated that some of the men were under the influence of liquor when they got off the cars. The new arrivals were given a supper and reception, which added to their hilarity. The soldiers thronged the streets all the evening and engaged in frequent rows and three guards were detailed to arrest offenders. Shortly after 11 o'clock several members of the Ninth Cavalry (colored), attempted to force their way into a notorious resort known as "The Adobe." Members of the Fourth Cavalry and Fifteenth Infantry who were in the place, resented the intrusion of the colored men and a fierce fight followed.

The men quarreled for some time and a large crowd of both white and colored soldiers gathered in the street in front of the resort. The efforts of the guard to subdue the rioters failed. Finally three negroes left the house and deliberately fired into the crowd.

One shot killed Sergeant Tooley of the Fourth Cavalry, and a second fatally injured another member of the same regiment. Other shots were fired, but fortunately no one else was hit.

Members of the Fourth Cavalry became so incensed at the killing of their comrade that it is alleged they set the house afire. The flames spread to the adjoining house, and both were destroyed, the inmates barely escaping with their lives.

The whole town was in an uproar until daylight, further rioting and arson being feared.

Deputy Sheriff Davis with other officers are on the way here from Salinas, and District Attorney Treat is also coming to take the ante-mortem statement of the wounded soldier.

The negro soldiers who did the shooting have not yet been arrested. It is reported that they boarded a train for San Francisco.

JAPS LAY DOWN ARMS

ST. PETERSBURG, October 20.—A dispatch to the Bourse Gazette from Mukden, dated October 19, says that on October 18, a detachment of the Russian vanguard on the west front surrounded a Japanese battalion and compelled it to lay down its arms.

FIGHTERS TAKING A REST.

GENERAL KUROPATKIN IN THE IMPERIAL CEMETERY OF MUKDEN WITH THE CHINESE AUTHORITIES.

Russians Are Planning to Make Another Move—Japs Give Up Arms.

The suspension of actual fighting in Manchuria continues and the first battle of Shalio river may be said to have ended. Both the Russian and Japanese commanders are resting their battle-worn troops and making dispositions. In Russian military circles it is hinted that the next developments may be looked for eastward.

The roads continue soggy, impeding operations on an extended scale. No official estimates of the losses in the recent fighting have been received and the fragmentary and unofficial reports are contradictory. Tokio hears that the Russian forces have been reinforced by about 38,000 men and that in all six divisions now confront the Japanese left. From Chefoo come reports of continued activity at Port Arthur, where fighting is almost daily in progress.

ALL IS QUIET ALONG FRONT

ST. PETERSBURG, October 20 (2 p. m.)—The suspension of operations below Mukden continues. It is hinted in military circles that the next developments should be looked for eastward, but whether on the part of the Japanese or Russians is not revealed. No news has reached the War Office of the reported annihilation of a Russian battalion while recrossing the Taitse river.

SKELETON STOPS UP DREDGER. DYNAMITE CALLS OUT VOTERS.

Strange Find Made By J. R. Knowland's Well Workmen in Alameda.

ALAMEDA, October 20.—A portion of a human skeleton was discovered in the estuary this morning in a most peculiar manner being drawn through the pump of the dredger which is at work about 120 feet off the Alameda shore and about 180 feet west of the foot of Chestnut street. The skeleton was pumped, by the dredger, on the shore bank of the corporation yard near the foot of Grand street. The pump of the dredger being near the foot of Grand street it was here that the gruesome human relics were found. The dredger was at work about 5:30 this morning.

A Nelson, the night watchman at the point, when the dredger was stopped up by mud this morning he sounded the signal to stop the pump. When the dredger was cleared the pump was discovered. Those who were on hand at the time were P. Larsen, Chas. Olsen, P. Isackson and L. Samson. All the dredger hands on the night shift.

Only a portion of the skeleton was found including the skull, shoulder blades and bones etc. It is evident by the remains of a man but owing to the fact it is judged that the bones have been in the water for a long time.

SUPPLIES FOR THE ARMY.

San Francisco Gets Big Boost By New Order.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 20.—Quartermaster Major Devoil said today to a representative from Washington regarding supplies for the army, will greatly increase the importance of the army post in this city. According to an official communication from the War Department, "all posts in the Department of Columbia, including Alaska, California and the Colorado, together with Forts Assiniboine, Harrison, Missoula and Yellowstone in the Department of the Dakotas will be supplied from the depot at San Francisco."

"This," said Major Devoil, includes approximately 14,710 men, not including those in the Philippines which will doubtless also obtain their supplies here. The order applies only to clothing and equipment which, however, are very important factors. The army and navy register of October 19 says: The posts in the various departments will hereafter be supplied from the depots at Philadelphia and San Francisco and arrangements have been made for stocking these with such articles of clothing and equipment as may be needed, in addition to the supplies available, taking one year's allowance as the basis of the calculation."

"We already are preparing," said Major Devoil, "to lay in a big stock and if the clothing and equipment needed can be manufactured here we will be glad to encourage home production."

FIGHTERS TAKE A REST

and Sandepu, the latter fifteen miles west of the railroad. The Japanese sentinels fired and retreated as the Cosaks rode rapidly along the line, but near Sandepu the Cosaks unexpectedly ran into a good sized Japanese force with machine guns. The latter opened a murderous fire on the Russians, killing many horses and mortally wounding Captain Turgeneff, but all the Cosaks succeeded in getting away. Not one was killed on the field.

No statement is made as to what is transpiring on the Russian side. The War Office is now disposed to believe that the Tokio report of the dragging given to General Yamada's brigade is the Japanese version of the capture of Lone Tree Hill, nicely turned to minimize its importance.

The reports that Generals Rennenkampf and Meyerndorf are wounded are denied. The former's chief of staff, Colonel Rossisky, was wounded.

ARMIES STILL FACE EACH OTHER

MUKDEN, October 20 (via Peking).—The big battle has practically worn itself out, leaving the two armies facing each other, with the Shakkie river as the dividing line.

An exchange of artillery fire continued all day on October 19, and all day on October 20, the Russian center advancing slightly each day under a heavy shell fire.

On the left the Russians are in a good position on a high hill overlooking the Shakkie river, which they have held since October 18, despite an almost continuous bombardment and frequent in-attacks.

On the right the Russians are using mortars in an endeavor to dislodge the Japanese from a small hill in the plain. The recent rains have flooded that river. Owing to these floods it would be necessary to use pontoons in crossing the Shakkie river, which has not been bridged.

COOLIES GET AWAY IN JUNK

CHEE POO, October 20 (8:30 a. m.).—A junk which left Liatoli yesterday morning was driven by a gale and arrived here tonight, bringing 100 coolies, who left Port Arthur because they feared injury from the Japanese shells.

These coolies say that on October 12 there was fierce fighting for several hours on the slopes of Rihlung mountain between comparatively small forces, during which the Japanese lost 300 killed or wounded. The coolies were unable to give details of the fighting, but apparently it was the result of one of the numerous sorties made by the Russians against the Japanese, who were attempting to advance from their trenches.

Japanese wounded say that the soldiers in the trenches suffer severely from the cold, although the Japanese at night are almost completely equipped with winter outfits.

It is said that the Port Arthur garrison is frantic for news of the operations of General Kuropatkin, from whom the defenders expect relief.

The news that the Baltic fleet had sailed for the Pacific was anounced to the garrison and greatly encouraged the Russians.

Robert W. Rupe, a commercial traveler, forty-five years of age, died yesterday of typhoid pneumonia at his home, 1469 Chestnut street. He leaves a wife and a daughter.

The funeral will be held to-morrow at 2:30 o'clock from the family residence. The deceased was a member of the Woodmen of the World and also of the Travelers' Association.

VICTIM OF DRUG HABIT.

Youth Inherits His Mother's Fondness For Morphine.

Albert Miller, young in years, but bent with the weight of the morphine habit, was this morning sentenced to ninety days' imprisonment in the city prison by Police Judge Smith. He pleaded guilty to being a vagrant by begging. His features were wan and white with the death hue produced by the drug.

Miller's infirmities from his mother was a craving for morphine. She was what the police term a "Pop Lead," which means one addicted to the use of the sedating drug. Miller has a brother who also is a "pop head."

The mother's sin in this respect has been visited on her offspring, and for the last three or four years her son's time has been divided between serving time in jail and begging on the streets for enough money to procure a "shot" of the pop's narcotic.

SON BEATS HIS FATHER.

W. J. McGuire is arrested for BEATING HIS PARENT.

Since acquiring his majority a year ago, W. J. McGuire, a cooper, now twenty-two years of age, residing with his father at 688 Twenty-seventh street, has been the real man of the house. According to his parent, the son has assumed the usual order of things and treated the father as a child. The father, however, has been chastising the son for his good the son has been treating the father to show his authority.

In showing out a quarrel yesterday for his son, the son's father, McGuire told Police Clerk John Nict the following story:

"I am sorry to charge my boy with beating me, but he seems to have lost all respect for his parents. I have told him on numerous occasions that if he did not cease his abuse I would have him arrested. He merely laughed at me. As a last resort I came to the conclusion that I would have to arrest him. I merely want to protect myself."

Young McGuire was arrested by Police-man Stahl this morning.

JUDGE SMITH AND CORONER MEHRMANN WORRIED ABOUT THEIR FIDELITY.

Police Judge Smith, who allowed his clerk, William Jennings Hennessey, to attend the Supreme Council of the Y. M. C. at Colorado Springs, and also to take an excursion to the St. Louis Fair, is anxious about his assistant. Yesterday the Judge received a notice from the Colorado postal authorities that there was a letter for him from Hennessey, but that there was two cents postage due on it, and please forward. Coroner Mehrmann, a close friend of Hennessey, received a notice also to send two cents postage.

The fear is that the affable clerk has been gold bricked and is in financial difficulties. Judge Smith states that he will send Hennessey money to come home on, but if he lost all of his money in Colorado and expects the Judge to send him funds to carry him to St. Louis, he will better make another guess. Coroner Mehrmann also expresses a willingness to send Hennessey money to come home on but not for traveling purposes.

Both the Judge and the Coroner have reluctantly forwarded the two cents, but they know not what the mail may bring forth.

JUDGE ADVISES THE ROD.

Tells Mother to Whip Cigarette-Smoking Youth.

Alexander Kennedy, a youth of 13 years was before Police Judge Smith this morning on a charge of smoking cigarettes. He was arrested by Policeman Ahern while he had the obnoxious weed in his mouth.

Under the law it is a misdemeanor for a youth under sixteen to smoke cigarettes.

In dismissing the boy Judge Smith said to the boy's mother who was in the court: "I would advise you to take your boy home and give him a sound whipping. That will do him good. There would be a harder if I fined the boy. I have no desire to do that; but if your son appears before me again on the same charge I will fine him heavily and may be send him to prison."

The boy did not relish the Court's remarks, especially as his mother seemed bent on carrying out the Judge's suggestion.

SHORTAGE OF CARS.

PORTLAND, Ore., October 20.—The business of buying Oregon and Washington wheat for shipment to Chicago and other Eastern markets has ceased. The railroad companies cannot supply enough cars to handle the traffic and consequently business is practically at a standstill. It is estimated that from 12,500,000 to 15,000,000 bushels have already been sold on Eastern account, and of this amount not over one-third has been forwarded. Exports have been made to secure water transportation to the Eastern seaboard, but these have failed owing to the lack of available tonnage.

There is practically no export business at present quotations. Liverpool values have declined steadily by the American markets and the stiff rates asked by the combination of shipowners precludes any possibility of profit in this kind of trade.

WAR RISKS ARE WEAKER.

NEW YORK, October 20.—In spite of the fact that the British squadron is at sea, says a Times dispatch from London, war risks on clothing, etc., for Japan are weaker. This seems rather absurd, the correspondent declares, since the squadron will certainly be capable of intercepting merchant vessels carrying contraband goods for Japan.

The Cape of Good Hope route, which the Squadron will take, is indicated by the purchase of the British steamer Maori King. This steamer recently arrived at London from the River Plate with an immense cargo of frozen meat.

DANCING MUST CEASE.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., October 20.—(Cable.)—The day of Syracuse University has declared by an address to the students that dancing must cease. The Chancellor so decided because of the dances given by an organization of college women who have been holding weekly parties at the Westminter Hall. He has said:

"These dances militate against scholarship and study. What we are here for is to study. Any attempt to hold a dance after this will be taken as a deliberate notice of your intention to be no longer one of us."

The chancellor's ultimatum has caused consternation among the students.

BODY IN THE PARK.

Unknown Dead Exposed to Elements For Two Months.

The badly decomposed body of an unknown man was found today in De Fremery Park under a clump of thick bushes by Frank Ryan, the gardener of the place.

The body, according to Deputy Coroner Quellan had been exposed to the elements for about sixty days.

The features of the deceased were not recognizable. The clothing, itself has rotted away and while the suit was originally of blue there was nothing there by the quality of style or where it was purchased could be ascertained.

There were no discernible marks or foul play of evidence that suicide had been committed.

The body is so badly decomposed that it will probably be impossible to tell whether death was the result of violence or came naturally.

The mystery is that the body could have lain for two months exposed to the elements without having been discovered. When the De Fremery park, prior to the bond election, was thrown open to the public, thousands of people passed by the remains without seeing it.

Frank Ryan, the gardener, was attracted to where the body lay by the odor. The remains have been taken to the morgue.

GEO. FAW AGAIN IN TROUBLE.

Candidate Accused of Getting Money Under False Pretenses.

SAN JOSE, October 20.—Sheriff Longford has forwarded to Oakland a warrant for the arrest of Geo. E. Faw, the Democratic nominee for Senator against Senator Russ Lukens. The charge against Faw is that of obtaining money under false pretenses from W. F. Ferguson, proprietor of the Louvre saloon on North First street.

It is alleged by Ferguson's attorney that on June 25 the accused, accompanied by a friend, George E. Russell, whom he had known in Monterey county some years before, entered the saloon and had some drinks. The charge against Faw is that of obtaining money under false pretenses from W. F. Ferguson, proprietor of the Louvre saloon on North First street.

Upon this statement Ferguson cashed Faw's check for $100, drawn on the First National Bank of Oakland. In the course of a few days the check was returned dishonored with the red ink returned. "No funds," Faw was repeatedly promised to make good the amount, but as he has failed to do so Ferguson's patience has become exhausted and he has sworn to a complaint in Justice Wallace's court upon which the warrant was issued.

WHISKY FOR THIS PREACHER.

Wife Has Him Sentenced to Jail to Sober Up.

Rev. H. P. Williams, a traveling evangelist, and a native of Kentucky, dropped his religion temporarily in this city and took up with spiritual pleasures such as low from the whisky glass. As a result of a five days' indulgence, he was arrested last night on the complaint of his wife, who says that the only way to cure her husband of his appetite for strong drink is to put him in jail.

Judge Smith, who had heard the wife's story, was accommodating this morning and sentenced him to spend five days in jail for the purpose of sobering up. The wife thanked the Judge for his consideration and even the preacher, who had fallen from grace, seemed grateful to the Court for assisting in carrying out the command every good Christian uses of "Get thee behind me Satan."

There was enough for the luckless preacher to write with himself and his besetting sin. Rev. Williams admits that before he took up with the ministry of the gospel he had the appetite of a Kentucky Colonel for drink.

His wife was in court and, after the sentence was imposed, tried to comfort her disgraced spouse.

OAKLAND DEFEATS ATHLETICS ON BERKELEY.

LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL ELEVEN WIN AFTER A HARD CONTEST.

By defeating the eleven representing the Berkeley High School on the University of California field yesterday afternoon by a score of 6 to 5, the Oakland High School eleven won the championship of the Western Sub-League. Yesterday was the first time in more than a half dozen years that the lads from Oakland have defeated their Berkeley rivals and there was much rejoicing here last night. The Oakland boys were in great condition, due greatly to the efforts of the team trainer, Frank Boek.

Oakland scored on a magnificent run over half the field made by Malcolms, who secured the ball on a fumble on the part of Berkeley's quarterback.

In the second half, Berkeley played better ball and made a great gain through Oakland's line that finally resulted in a touchdown. And then to kick the goal was unsuccessful.

The game was witnessed by a very large crowd. The Oakland players were provided with blue megaphones, while the Berkeley players had orange horns. The crowd was well handled owing to the complete arrangements made by Manager Mike of the Oakland High School.

Next Saturday afternoon the Oakland eleven will play the eleven from Santa Rosa for the championship of the Northern California and the winner of this contest will play Lick for the championship of the A. A. U.

The following was the line-up: Berkeley—Doane, C.; Brown, L. G.; Solinsky, L. T.; Steele, L. E.; Wheeler, R. G.; Johnson, R. T.; Mone, R. E.; Miller, Q.; Stone, L. H.; Parr, H. R.; Peck, F.

Oakland—Bramhall, C.; Davis, R. H.; Becker, Craig, R. T.; Spangler, R. E.; Langham, L. G.; Livingston, L. T.; Malcolm, L. E.; Chalmers, H. Q.; Jacobus, R. H.; Jackson, L. H.; Snow, F.

Final score—Oakland 6, Berkeley 5. Time of game, 1 hour 55 minutes. Halves, 25 minutes.

JEFF REFUSES JOHNSON.

SAYS HE WILL NOT FIGHT ANY MAN OF COLOR.

Between the acts at the Central Theatre last night, where he was playing, Dave Crockett, Jim Jeffries announced that under no conditions would he fight Jack Johnson or any other man whose skin happened to be colored. Said Champion Jeffries:

"I do not care whether Johnson is the Japanese or any other race, I have declared that as long as I am in the fighting business I will never make a match with a black man. The negroes may come and the negroes may go, but some of the best fighters in the world are fighting men. Just tell the public that James J. Jeffries has made up his mind that he will never put on boxing gloves to give battle to an Ethiopian."

"I might have admired Jack Johnson's prowess as a pugilist," said Jeffries at the ringside last night. "I would have gone so far as to state that I think I would be able to give a good account of myself were he in the ring with a man many points better than the fellow he whipped last night. But when Johnson applies to me for an engagement, I tell him that I have no desire to look for some one of his own color and class to give him a fight."

"I am against boxing black men, first, last and all the time."

BOWLING LIST GROWING.

OAKLAND ALLEYS HAVE COMPLETE ASSORTMENT OF NEW BALLS.

As a result of the excellent facilities afforded by the Oakland Alleys on Thirteenth street, bowlers are coming out in great numbers. The bookmakers who will figure the score on the coming races have noticed the fact that they will be on hand as soon as the races begin. They will have special alleys reserved for them.

Within the past week a complete assortment of new bowling balls have been obtained.

WHEELMEN WILL BOWL.

BICYCLISTS WILL CONTEST WITH THE SYNDICATE TEAM.

Arrangements have been made for a match bowl between the Syndicate and the Oakland Wheelmen to take place Tuesday evening, October 25, at the Syndicate Alleys. Those who have seen both teams at work do not like to pass an opinion as to the outcome of the game.

Both aggregations contain some good material. There has been considerable friendly rivalry between the two teams and the game should be hotly contested.

E. W. Greig bowled five games last night making a total of 1052 pins. His scores are as follows: 224, 222, 191, 216, 200.

DR. MOSKIMAN, OAKLAND'S PITCHER, WHO CELEBRATED HIS FIFTH STRAIGHT VICTORY YESTERDAY.

HOW BRITT AND GANS TRAIN.

For the first time during his training for his coming match with Jimmy Britt, Joe Gans, the light weight champion worked in the gymnasium. The colored champion is following in the footsteps of Jeffries as far as his indoor work is concerned.

Billy Shannon's gymnasium Gans has a big sand man which he hustles around in an awkward fashion while the pugilist turns rolls off his body in the pugilist's turning and making away at a big bag of sand is the most strenuous indoor work imaginable. It has a tendency to tire a boxer more than the fast snappy work-out afforded by five or six rounds of boxing or a half hour at the bag. Joe toiled ceaselessly at the big bag for three quarters of an hour. Then he walloped the bag and made the sphere literally sing a song against the hard wood platform. The exercise lasted an hour and twenty minutes at the end of which Manager Al Hereford called a halt and put the trainers at work rubbing Gans down.

Gans went out on the road this morning. He left his training quarters at 8:30 o'clock and headed along the road toward Lakespur. On the way back Gans took a short cut over the hills. It shortened his journey somewhat, the going was much harder. After springing over the hills for twenty minutes or so, Joe had to slack up. He came into his quarters dusty and dripping with perspiration. Gans thinks the climate of Marin county the greatest in the world in which to train.

"I have trained in many places during my long career as a boxer," said Gans while being rubbed down by Manager McDonald and Kid Sullivan. "but this place beats them all. I don't know of a better place in the world to train than right here."

"How soon do I expect to beat Britt?" Well, that's what I say. You can say for me that I want to beat this fellow as quickly as possible. Yes, Britt is not an easy mark. He is a strong, tough, young fellow with lots of sand and he keeps a fellow busy all the time, but I think I know how to beat him easy enough. I am not taking any chances, however. I propose to be in the best of shape."

Jimmy Britt came off the road this morning feeling as clipper as a lark. Britt certainly looks the picture of health. He is as usual, brim full of confidence, but he admits that in Gans he is meeting the hardest man of his career. Jimmy has been training for some time now and at the end of the

CLASS TOURNEY COMPLETE.

BERKELEY TENNIS PLAYERS WILL CONTEST IN THE DOUBLES.

All the matches of the class tournament have been played off and the inter-class matches have begun on the University of California courts. The men who won their titles as champions of their classes are without doubt four of the best tennis players in the University. J. H. McCollough won the senior class championship. Bill Baker won the junior class honors. Claude A. Wayne won the sophomore class championship title, and Herbert Schmidt was the winner of the freshman class tournament.

In the finals for the championship of the junior class, played yesterday afternoon, Bill Baker won from Harry Rolfe. It took five sets to decide the match, and no one of them was at all one-sided. Rolfe took the lead by winning the first set to the tune of 6-4, but Baker began to have considerable say in matters in the following set. At the opening part of the second set, Rolfe played the better game, but as it grew older Baker picked up and finally ran out the set by the score of 6-3.

Again Rolfe came to the front and landed the third set, principally by his superior work at the net. After this Rolfe improved so fast that he played all around Rolfe and won the set 6-2. From this time on Rolfe was practically out of the game. Baker played one of the best games seen on the courts this year and Rolfe was pretty much dead.

By the last of the week the doubles will be commenced and if there are any men who wish to enter the tournament must leave word by this afternoon at 5 o'clock in the tennis box. All matches will be the best two out of three sets in the preliminary matches, but the finals will be the best three out of five. The same rules will apply in the doubles tournament as in the single match.

Following is the final score of the Baker-Rolfe match. Baker won 4-6, 6-3, 6-2, 6-2.

Games to be played today are: 4 p. m.—C. A. Wayne and Herbert Schmidt, sophomore-freshman match.

BENEFIT GAME MILE RUN OF BALL.

ARIELS AND HUBS WILL CONTEST AT IDORA PARK SUNDAY.

All arrangements have been completed for the benefit game of baseball tendered to James Matthews, between the Arieles and Hubs. The game will be played next Sunday, at Idora Park, at 2:30 p. m. Matthews, who is captain of the Arieles, has his hand out of while at work last week and it is feared his whole arm must be amputated.

Both teams have a record to be proud of and they are capable of putting up a good article of ball. Some familiar faces will be among the line-ups.

SEATTLE HELPS OAKLAND.

BY ALLOWING ANGELS TO TAKE GAME BY SCORE OF 11 TO 7.

Seattle won from the visiting Angels yesterday, and that fact helps Oakland in the pennant race. Score: Seattle, 11; Los Angeles, 7. Heads like a crap game. Hal pitched for Seattle and Hal pitched for Los Angeles. C. for the Swashes, and W. for the Angels. The latter pitched rings around his namesake. Summary:

OAKLAND HIGH RALLY.

In order to fittingly celebrate their great victory over the Berkeley eleven, the students of the Oakland High School this afternoon held a rally at which much enthusiasm was manifested. "Pop" Moulton, trainer at the Stanford University, gave a talk on "How to Use Success" and Principal Pond also gave a spirited talk as did others prominent in athletic life.

SALARIES WILL BE CUT.

60 AGREE MANAGERS IN THE PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE.

PORTLAND, October 20.—President Ben C. Ely does not appear to be highly enamored of the proposition that emanated from San Francisco to charge an increased admission price for baseball games next season, in order to meet the expenses of high-class baseball teams. It will be remembered that it was at first suggested the price might be doubled going from 25 cents to 50 cents; but Manager Harris, of the San Francisco club said he thought an advance to 35 cents would be ample.

"I have been in correspondence with San Francisco regarding this matter," said Mr. Ely this morning. "It has been the idea to increase the price of admission for the bleachers from 25 cents to 35 cents. The price of admission to the grounds and grandstand would remain the same as at present but I hardly believe that would be the best plan to follow. My idea next year is to charge 25 cents for women all day of the week, with the exception of Sundays. That would entitle them to admission to the grand stand and would do away with the free days."

"This would be a new plan and might be objected to at first, but under present circumstances, with expenses so high, something of the kind must be arranged if we are to give the fans high-class baseball."

"All the teams of the league, as I understand it, will agree to a reduction in the salary list next season. It is the scheme to give the catchers an average of $150 a month, the infielders to average $175 a month, the outfielders $225 and the pitchers to run more than $300. Some of the pitchers may run more than others, but we propose to maintain an average at about the figures I have named, which will make a monthly pay-roll in the neighborhood of $3400. All of the teams will have lost money this season and to my mind this is the most feasible plan that has been presented. It is agreeable to other managers and certainly is in Portland."

One of the hottest-fought track events held for some time will occur at the Pacific Athletic Association handicap meet on Saturday at Berkeley.

The one-mile run will no doubt be the event of the day. The entries in this race are John O. Miller of Stanford University, who is Pacific Coast champion, Reginald Clifford, the University of California champion, A. A. Glaner of the Vampire Football Club, C. A. Newhall, thousand-yard champion of the coast and a large number of new men who with their handicaps give the older men a great race.

Quite a few Oakland and Berkeley High School boys are entered in these events and the schools are expected to turn out and give the a plenty of encouragement.

OAKLAND TAKES GAME NO 1.

FIRST CONTEST WITH TACOMA IS WON BY SCORE OF 3 TO 2.

The sample provided yesterday afternoon by Oakland and Tacoma shows that the series between the two teams will be the most hotly contested of the baseball year. If Oakland takes a majority of the games, say about eight, then the Commuters will have something of a show for that pennant. The finish yesterday was: Oakland, 3; Tacoma, 2. Those picked for the Tigers, while Moskiman occupied the prominent position for Oakland. Summary:

THE LATEST NEWS OF THE DAY=4:30 P. M.

MAY WED
AGAINInnocent Party in Divorce
Case Can Re-
marry.

BOSTON, October 20.—The House of Deputies at the Episcopal General Convention today, adopted by a large majority, the compromise resolution on the divorce question, by which the innocent party in a divorce for adultery may re-marry after one year on the presentation of satisfactory evidence of the fact.

The forces favoring a rigid divorce canon in the Episcopal Church and those who oppose them were present in full strength at today's session of the House of Deputies, an agreement having been reached yesterday to consider the issue and settle it, if possible for the present.

The content came before the deputies again on the question of concurring with a resolution adopted by the House of Bishops forbidding the re-marriage of "the innocent party" in divorce for infidelity.

The action of the bishops was met yesterday by the committee on canons in the House of Deputies, which proposed as a compromise an amendment forbidding re-marriage within one year after the granting of a decree by the civil court and compelling clergymen to examine the court records before performing the ceremony.

A motion for a new trial of the case had been granted by the Supreme Court on the ground of insufficiency of evidence.

GIRL IS ROBBEDJewels Stolen While She Was Visiting
Fair.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 20.—Miss Helen Murlson, one of San Francisco's most prominent society belles, has been robbed of her jewels and personal effects in St. Louis. Her friends in this city are much concerned over the plight of the charming girl, who has been traveling in the East for several months with a chaperon, Mrs. H. H. Braun, and who found herself Monday evening with money, jewels, gowns and hats stolen.

The news was received in dispatches sent to this city yesterday.

Miss Murlson is the niece of Mrs. Elizabeth Murlson of 224 Pacific avenue, where she makes her home. With Mrs. Braun, she is spending a few weeks at the Exposition, stopping at the Hamilton Hotel in St. Louis.

Monday evening Mrs. Braun and Miss Murlson visited the World's Fair grounds, leaving their apartments in the hotel locked as usual. On their return, later in the evening they found that thieves had made an entrance and ransacked the rooms. The floors were strewn with garments dragged from the trunks and bureau drawers in the search for valuables. A letter of credit for $500 issued by the Nevada National Bank of this city on the American Exchange Bank of New York, had been stolen and about $500 worth of personal effects, silver toilet article were gone, and jewelry, two leather suit cases and a number of handsome gowns had all been gathered by the indiscriminate thieves.

FIXING TITLE TO MERRITT LANDS

A decree was handed down this afternoon by Judge Ellsworth quieting title to that part of the late Samuel Merritt estate left to the trustees of Bowdoin College and for the benefit of the Samuel Merritt Hospital. By his will the late Dr. Merritt left a part of his estate to these two institutions to be sold for their benefit. The heirs of the estate, however, did not want the estate broken up and by agreement among all the parties interested an arrangement was made whereby the land itself was divided among the heirs instead of being sold and the money apportioned.

In order that there should be no question of the title to some of the property, Arthur J. Russell, representing Peter L. Wheeler and William B. Rogers, trustees of the Samuel Merritt Hospital, brought suit against Henry Rogers, as trustee under the will of the late Catherine A. Merritt and the trustee of Bowdoin College to stop them from ever asserting any claim to certain land then set forth and situated around Lake Merritt.

The suit was not contested, and Judge Ellsworth signed the decree as prayed for.

U. S. WILL NOT

ST. PETERSBURG, October 20, 6:05 p. m.—The Russian authorities have been unofficially assured that the report that the United States contemplated tendering good offices in the interest of the restoration of peace in the Far East is untrue. The assurance was received with satisfaction, although the report had not been given credence in government circles.

ATTACK
AT NIGHTJapanese Fight Under Cover of the Darkness.

MUKDEN, October 20.—The Japanese are fond of night attacks, which they organize cleverly. They light a series of enormous camp fires at false bivouacs and then stealthily creep upon the Russian sentinels, who, perceiving into the darkness and blinded by the glare, cannot see the Japanese approaching. Or they take advantage of a rain storm and try to surprise the Russians. On Tuesday night they adopted both schemes, but ran into a hornet's nest. The night was lanky black, rain was falling and a cold wind was blowing.

"A fine night for the Japanese," everyone said and the Russians huddled in the trenches had strict orders given to them that if the expected, but uninvited guests, appeared, not to fire, but to meet them with the bayonet. It was so dark that a person could not see his hand before his face, except vaguely.

Through the rain, in the direction of the false bivouacs, all eyes were strained and ears listened intently. The wind, which was as cold as ice and cut to the bone, was suddenly freighted with ominous sounds, an unmistakable squawk in the mud and squirming of water under the feet of burning feet, accompanied by the metallic rattle of arms. The Russians stopped lower. The officers passed along another cautious order—under no circumstances to fire, but to meet the Japanese with the bayonets. On they came. The Russians could already see the silhouettes of the Japanese and watched the approach of their victims with grim satisfaction that only anxiety being lest some nervous soldier might fire and thus spoil the game. The Japanese came on, straining their eyes in the darkness, evidently not believing that the Russians were so close. When the Japanese were almost upon them, the Russians rose up, as if together, and with a hurrah, wildly fell upon them with the bayonet. The front ranks of the Japanese broke, turned and smashed into the second line throwing the whole force into disorder. Like a rabble they tried to escape but the Russians gave them no quarter, bayoneting them as they pursued.

For a mile the work of slaughter proceeded and few Japanese lived to carry back the tale. In the morning the ground was strewn with corpses.

AFTER
RAILROADSJudge Wellborn Hands
Down a Salty
Decision.

LOS ANGELES, October 20.—Judge Wellborn, in the District Court, ruled as follows in the fruit routing case: Judge Wellborn announced today that he had been unable to file a written opinion in the fruit routing case, but would rule on the motion, briefly giving his reasons for the benefit of the attorneys. In his opinion, the doctrine of comparative hardships should be applied to the decision of the pending case and that to justify the suspension of the decree it must be shown, first, that irreparable damage will result to the defendants by its enforcement, and second, that no such loss will result to the complainant, and by this is meant, not the Interstate Commerce Commission, but the general public, or more especially the citrus fruit shippers.

It may be concluded that the defendants will sustain damages by the enforcement of the decree, for which there is no adequate compensation, but the nature and amount of which are not ascertainable. Against this phase of the case, said the court, the proposition arises, will the complainant sustain damages by reason of the suspension of the decree? In what condition will the suspension of the decree leave the shippers? The decree restores to them the routing privilege, the suspension takes it from them, and thereby utterly destroys competition, both as to service and rates. As to the value of this privilege, it is only necessary to refer to the testimony of Mr. Bissell and others, and that it is of great value is evidenced by the efforts that have been made to retain it, as shown by this litigation, and the statements that have been made by the railroads, who expect to transport 25,000 or 30,000 cars of citrus fruit this year.

Judge Wellborn then pays his respects to the question of debates, which, he said, was a violation of the State act, so rampant that it was difficult to find language sufficiently strong and blistering to characterize it, and intimated that while the matter had not been treated directly in the case at bar, he was convinced that the joint tariff was a violation of that act and for that reason the court could not entertain favorably the motion, if the obvious intention was to violate some other law than the interstate act.

WANTS DAMAGES.
Suit to abate what is alleged to be a nuisance was begun today by W. H. Norwood against the Town Trustees of Berkeley, whom, he claims, are causing to be graded certain streets in such a way that the water of Derby creek is being turned from its natural channel and allowed to now over the land of plaintiff and others to their damage. He asks for $500 damages.

SHELLING
THE ENEMYJapanese Tell of Light
Work at the Front.

TOKIO, October 20, 5 p. m.—Manchurian headquarters, telegraphing yesterday, reviews the situation at the front as follows:

"Yesterday the center column of the right army attacked and dislodged the enemy's cavalry holding Tunchiafo, but a small body of the enemy's infantry has returned to that eminence.

"The enemy continues to hold 'Vaitao' mountain.

"On the morning of October 17, two battalions of the enemy's infantry were visible near Kaokwanchia, lying on the right of the right army and they appeared to have supports in the rear. The strength of the latter is under investigation.

"On the afternoon of October 17, the right wing of the center column, discovered two battalions and a battery of the enemy advancing in its front from Tunchiafo to Titi mountain. They concealed themselves behind Titi mountain.

"One brigade of the enemy is located near Fenchiafo. The enemy's guns north of Fenchiafo occasionally shell our positions. There is no change in front of the left column of the right army.

"There has been no change in front of the center army, except that there are occasional exchanges of shells.

"It is quiet in front of the left army, though the enemy occasionally sends shells towards our positions. On the night of October 18 the enemy attacked the front of the left column, but it was repulsed."

HUSBAND
MISSINGWent In Bathing and Suddenly Drops Out of Sight.

SANTA CRUZ, October 20.—A gentleman and his young and good-looking wife arrived Monday evening and registered at Dr. A. K. Kander from San Francisco at the Hotel St. George. On Tuesday they left the hotel, removing to a private boarding-house. Yesterday morning about 10 o'clock the physician went to the building and hired a suit. He left the building and went toward the water. Kander's wife came down to the coach in the afternoon about 2 and again about 5 o'clock and inquired for her husband. The attendants went to his room and notified late in the evening and has been working on the case.

No clue as to the whereabouts of Kander has been obtained. There were no papers in his pockets leaving any clue as to his whereabouts. The body was found after leaving the plunge and few gave any credence to the theory of drowning, the supposition being that he has been lured.

WOMAN
STABBEDShe Plunges Butcher
Knife Into Her
Abdomen.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—Mrs. Rose Bearwald, of 113 Fell street, attempted suicide early this morning by stabbing herself in the abdomen with a butcher knife, while in a fit of insanity. The deed was attempted at Seventh and Mission streets. Mrs. Bearwald was recently released from the insane asylum on parole.

At the Central Emergency Hospital, where the wounded woman was taken, Dr. Wilson discovered that the puncture was but three-quarters of an inch deep, but she had evidently fished savagely into her body. After Mrs. Bearwald was put in a cell she attempted to tear off the bandage. Her condition is not serious.

JAPANESE
RETIRING.Battle Will Not Be Renewed For Several Days.

ST. PETERSBURG, October 20, 6:10 p. m.—The Bourse Gazette's correspondent at Mukden sticks to the story that the Japanese are slowly retiring. On the other hand several other correspondents telegraph that operations have been suspended owing to the rain.

They say the armies are confronting each other across the Shakhe river and add that nothing important is expected for several days.

The Russian-Slovakian correspondent says an advance guard engagement was occurred east, but he gives no details. Possibly the correspondent refers to the report from Tokio of the reply of the Taitse river engagement.

Additional details of the capture of Lone Tree Hill bestow much credit on Colonel Baskoff, of the Thirty-sixth Rifle regiment, who was leading one of the storming parties. Finding that his men were giving way he seized the regimental colors and dashed forward to the Japanese trenches, shouting, "Brother, save the flag." The regiment, although severely punished, responded gallantly. The wounded in the trenches fought with their teeth.

The Wilhelmstrasse regiment, while storming the front of the hill, fired by mistake on some of their comrades, who were circling the Japanese flank.

The Japanese were promptly appropriated by the Russians. Over 600 Japanese were buried on the hill.

One correspondent sends an unverified report that the Russians so far have captured forty-seven guns.

WOMAN
SUICIDESTurned on the Gas in Her Private Bathroom.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 20.—Miss Fannie Lent, of 698 Polk street was found dead in her private bathroom at a late hour this morning. The gas was turned on full force and it is thought that the young woman committed suicide in a fit of despondency.

A year ago her mother died, and Miss Lent's grief was inconsolable. Her health suffered, and she went about among her acquaintances but little.

Her father, G. H. Lent, was buried yesterday.

This morning her brother, William M. Lent, missed her, and sent the maid, Annie Sullivan, up to her room to see whether she was ill. The maid found the room unoccupied. The bed had not been slept in.

Lent searched the house and found the dead body of his sister in the bathroom. She was dressed in her bath robe. Death had been caused by asphyxiation.

CONTEST OVER
HOOGS ESTATE.WIDOW AND STEPSON DO NOT

MONEY.

Mother and stepson have clashed over the administration of the estate of the late William W. Hoogs who died on the 5th of this month at his home at 89 Valley street in this city, leaving an estate valued at about $4000. Shortly after his death William E. Hoogs, son of deceased, petitioned for letters of administration upon his father's estate without the consent of the widow, who today filed the following notice of opposition to his appointment:

"Now comes Mary C. Hoogs, widow of deceased, and opposes the granting of letters of administration to William E. Hoogs upon the ground that being the widow of said deceased she has been appointed administratrix and never having been divorced and never having made a contract of separation, she and not William E. Hoogs is the person entitled to letters of administration.

The property in dispute consists of personal property to the value of $125 and a house and lot, the late residence of the deceased."

Showing on Regis-

The much-feared shortage in the registration of voters in Alameda county has been happily overcome and according to figures just completed by County Clerk John P. Cook an increase of 3918 voters is announced over the roll of two years ago. Almost up to the last week the registrations were for short of what they should have been, but at the last moment there was a general movement all over the county to take advantage of the last few days, which made up to a large extent what it was feared was to be an unprecedented year. The figures as they now stand are as follows:

First Ward 2132, increase 448; Second 2758, increase 358; Third 2241, increase 218; Fourth 2694, increase 52; Fifth 2519, increase 187; Sixth 2514, increase 19; Seventh 2700, increase 301; total 17,512, increase 1911. DIVORCE ON INFIDELITY CHARGE.

An interdictory decree of divorce was granted Pauline A. Scott today by Judge Ogden from Cephas A. Scott, a brakeman in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company, on the ground of infidelity and cruelty. They were married in 1900, and by stipulation it was agreed that if the defendant would pay to the plaintiff the sum of $45 nothing more would be asked of him. Mrs. Scott was also allowed to resume her former name of Pauline A. Converse.

"Now comes Mary C. Hoogs, widow of deceased, and opposes the granting of letters of administration to William E. VETERAN
SUICIDES.Worried Over the Death of Favorite
Son.

NEW YORK, October 20.—Unsolvable over the loss of his favorite son and an exile from the fatherland, because he had shot and wounded a German officer who, he believed, intentionally shot at him, a veteran of the Franco-Prussian war, today shot himself dead in the hallway of an East Side tenement house where he lived. Engelhardt was 57 years of age. He left a large family and, it is said, a prosperous business in Germany when he fled to this country. Before taking his life, Engelhardt had pinned on his breast 37 German medals received for bravery during the Franco-Prussian war, including one given him for his services at Sedan.

In Engelhardt's room were found ten letters sealed and addressed, some in the police and others to his relatives in Germany. One bore the address, "Oh, That Murderer." It is supposed that the letter is Engelhardt's farewell message to his wife, the officer whom he believed had killed his son.

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 21.—Fires from the mountains which have been burning for the past two days, came down the slope and threatened the town of Fosters this morning. A dynamite magazine in the outskirts contained one and one-half tons of explosive. The fire came within ten feet of the magazine before the citizens organized a volunteer force and removed the dynamite. The hotel and depot were only saved by rapid fighting.

The valley between Fosters and Pleasant Grove has been swept by the flames and a strong wind is taking the fire rapidly westward.

Taft's Mission to Panama

The President could have selected no man better qualified for the task than Secretary Taft who is charged with the delicate duty of allaying the suspicion which has become rife in Panama that our Government designs to really annex the canal strip. Tact and diplomacy will be required to make the people of Panama understand the situation and bring them round to a realization of the fact that they have nothing to fear from the United States. Secretary Taft showed himself both tactful and diplomatic in dealing with the native leaders in the Philippines and the friar land question. He was not only successful, but he came out with the respect and confidence of all concerned.

His task at Panama has been simplified and made easier at the start by the letter of the President instructing him what to do and defining the attitude of the United States toward Panama. This letter admirably states the policy of this Government—a policy that few will cavil at, and which the people of Panama must find reassuring and in harmony with their national feeling. The pith of the letter is in this paragraph:

"We have not the slightest intention of establishing an independent colony in the middle of the State of Panama, or of exercising any greater governmental functions than are necessary to enable us conveniently and safely to construct, maintain and operate the canal under the rights given us by the treaty. Least of all do we desire to interfere with the business and prosperity of the people of Panama. However far a just construction of the treaty might enable us to go, did the exigencies of the case require it, in asserting the equivalent of sovereignty over the canal strip, it is our full intention that the rights which we exercise shall be exercised with all proper care for the honor and interests of the people of Panama."

The people of Panama realize their own weakness and their total inability to cope with any display of force on the part of the United States. They are, moreover, jealous and suspicious, and inclined to take counsel of their fears and prejudices. The great mass of them are woefully ignorant and are easily deceived and led by unscrupulous agitators who are numerous and belong to a vicious type peculiar to the Latin American countries. Outside intrigue has assisted in exciting the fears and suspicions of the Panamanians—agents of Colombia, foreign emissaries and local politicians of the disappointed class. The Democratic criticism of the administration in the United States has had its share in fomenting distrust, which became so pronounced when the Government proceeded with its plans to police the canal strip as to amount to a popular conviction that it was the United States' intention to center all the commerce of the Isthmus in the canal strip and then assume exclusive jurisdiction over it. The people of the city of Panama naturally became much excited, and the national government also took alarm. The situation finally became so acute that it threatened a breach between the authorities of Panama and the United States before work on the canal fairly commenced. To avert anything so unfortunate the President has sent Secretary Taft to Panama. There is no doubt that he will straighten out the tangle speedily.

A woman in Corsicana, Texas, was remarried in less than an hour after she was granted a divorce from her first husband, the groom being her principal witness. Comment is scarcely necessary. The moral is obvious, and so is the motive for seeking the divorce and the motive of the witness whose testimony set the woman free to legally enter into polygamous relations with him.

The death of King George is likely to give impetus to the Socialist movement which has for some time exhibited great strength in the Kingdom of Saxony. At present the Social Democrats constitute a large majority of the Saxon electorate. King George was highly respected and popular, but his son and successor, Frederick, is detested for his vices and manners. When his wife, stung to fury by his brutality, tyranny and flagrant infidelities, eloped with her children's tutor, the populace of Dresden showed in every way their sympathy for the disgraced princess and their detestation for her husband. While the ill-feeling against Frederick is less pronounced than it was, it still prevails throughout the kingdom and will show itself in an aggressive form the first time he runs counter to the wishes of his subjects in any serious matter.

Prison Needs—Good Wardens.

Good prison management depends primarily on the character and qualifications of the prison manager. A good warden will accomplish good results under a bad system while an unfit warden will accomplish poor results under the best system that was ever devised. Personality is the factor that counts for more than anything else in the equation of the problem of prison management. This fact has been abundantly demonstrated in this State, particularly by events at Folsom and San Quentin during recent years. Favoritism, the improper use of the strait jacket, undue harshness, too much laxity, all are merely symptoms, indications, results, etc., of unfitness in the executive department. They are simply evidences of a lack of the necessary mental and moral qualities indispensable in governing the inmates of a large prison and holding a firm hand over the subordinate officers and employees of the institution. As used in this sense, the term "unfitness" does not imply either general incompetence or personal corruption. A man may be intelligent, honest, well meaning and competent in other vocations yet be absolutely unfit and incompetent to manage a prison. Certain bents of mind and infirmities of temper cause the sternest of men to be over lax and over-indulgent at times and the kindest hearted to be cruel in special instances. The unduly suspicious trust in the wrong men, and the over-trustful are duped by convicts and subordinates alike. All sorts of reforms in the prisons are from time to time suggested, but it never seems to be realized that the reform most needed is the selection of wardens without reference to their political affiliations and then giving them a free hand to manage the prisons without interference from politicians seeking places for followers who are handier in the primaries than in attending to their duties.

The Democratic campaign in California has gone to complete smash, and the party managers are doing their best to save some of the pieces.

There is no paradox in the fact that tax bills will be smaller this year although the tax rate is higher than last year. Two factors determine the volume of taxation—the rate and the assessment. Last year the State Board of Equalization raised the assessment of Alameda County twenty per cent. and the levy for all purposes was made on that basis. This year the State Board allowed the assessment to stand, hence the rate is higher but the amount to be paid is smaller. Moreover a larger proportion of the money to be raised by taxation will be expended in this county. A good deal of it will go toward perfecting the admirable system of roads and bridges created during the last ten or twelve years.

Charles F. Murphy, the boss of Tammany Hall, has not at any time predicted that Parker would carry the State of New York. He confines himself to the statement that Manhattan and the Bronx, constituting the old city of New York, will give Parker 75,000 plurality. This would give Parker a plurality in the five boroughs of from 100,000 to 110,000. Nobody estimates the Republican majority outside of Greater New York at less than 125,000. The Republican managers claim it will exceed 150,000. Odell received a plurality of 133,000 outside of New York City two years ago, and he was not nearly so strong then as Roosevelt is to-day.

The demand of the Democrats that Chairman Corleyou publish a list of the contributions to the Republican campaign fund is the richest joke of the campaign. If they are anxious for publicity of this sort, let them publish a list of the subscriptions to the Parker campaign fund.

AN OVER-CRITICAL PAPER.

The OAKLAND TRIBUNE is disposed to find some fault with Benjamin Ide Wheeler for traveling across the continent six times in a single year, and doing a little politics on the side. The TRIBUNE evidently is behind the times. It fatuously imagines that a university president ought to stay at the university and help to "keep school." It possibly imagines that if he were on the ground, there might be a diminution of hoodlums that vents itself in hazing and like happy practices. And again our contemporary may have concluded that the former secretary of the Board of Regents would have had less leisure to play the races had the president been on his tiptoes at the university instead of holding political confabs in Washington and New York.

But the TRIBUNE is disposed to be hypercritical. Our University president is not traveling in vain. He is enriching his mind, and consequently the minds of the youths of California by garnering information about the political outlook. He has learned by his latest trip that Judge Parker is a dead one, and that Mr. Roosevelt is a cock sure winner. Also he has ascertained that John Hay has decided to stay with his job as Secretary of State when Colonel Roosevelt is again inaugurated. Are not these things worth knowing? It is true that a small politician might go East one time, instead of six, and gather an equal amount of valuable information on the political situation, but when he gave his findings to the world, they would not come with the weight of those that have filtered into the mind of a university president.—Bakersfield Californian.

If the Democratic managers really want to get a little excitement in their campaign, let them try a few stump speeches like the above suggestion.—York Dispatch.

PIONTED PARAGRAPHS.

The average poet is rich—in expectations.

Many a woman who is outwardly handsome is inwardly homely.

Happiness is the ever-retreating summit on the hill of ambition.

If you are in love don't go to a bachelor or spinster for advice.

It's far better to be bent on economy than broke on extravagance.

Don't think because a woman is outspoken that she can be out-talked.

Many a man would never be missed if his wife didn't throw things at him.

Old age may not bring wisdom, but it has a lot of fool experience to its credit.

One of the longest days in the average man's life is the one just before pay day.

The majority of our mistakes would never be noticed if we did not call attention to them.

Preachers have been bombarding his satanic majesty's stronghold for centuries, but he still holds the fort.

TEA

The English and Irish old woman lives in a garret on tea, and dies in a garret on tea; and how did she get to be old? On tea.

A TOAST.

Ah, yes! I know the dishing maid Of whom you speak, I know her well. She is a fascinating little thing, Her laughter, like a tinkling bell. Has often thrilled me with delight, And made me exultant—'twas a whirl. Let us not talk of her tonight— Here's to a different sort of girl.

That widow sitting over there? Yes! I have met her once or twice. The magic of her baby stare Would almost melt a heart of ice. Good fellow? Yes, she's that all right— Perhaps she'll think that I'm a churl. But let's not talk of her tonight— Here's to a different sort of girl.

The two sou'westers are here, you say? Well, I don't care—let 'em deal all off. I turned 'em down the other day— That's straight, old man—you needn't know they've both been pretty white. I used to think a lot of Pearl. But let's not talk of her tonight— Here's to a different sort of girl.

The girl I love! God bless her, Jack! Fill up and drink the toast with me. Long have I walked by winding track. That leads through swamps not fair to see. But something in her sly eyes That beamed beneath a quaint curl Led me from those I used to prize— Here's to a different sort of girl! —W. F. Kirk in Milwaukee Sentinel

Have you tried making tea like this? Moisten an ounce of tea finely ground with cold water and let it stand for twenty minutes. Then pour on the tea a scant pint of boiling water and in one minute it is ready to drink.

Very good substitute for the "bought" tea. Dish mops may be easily made by fastening to wooden handles some of the fringes with which home-made counterpane were formerly bordered. Such a quantity of this may be found in some old homes that it is well to utilize it in some way.

Hints for the Ladies.

Plaid and velvet check are among the novelties.

The newest automobile coats have a large hood attached.

Twin beds now come in wood, enameled, white or in colors.

Good value in run-a-rings in all colors is offered for 40 cents a yard.

Entire turbans are shown, made of midwest coque feathers in browns and peacocks.

Mallie's ruchings are exhibited in the shop and also superseding lace for sleeve and neck ruffs.

In the jewelry departments short necklaces with pendants are shown to replace the long chain fad.

Plaid silk shirtings are a feature of the opening and will be in promise, popular all fall and winter.

For ordinary street wear plain finished kid gloves in quiet shades of brown, gray or castor are shown. They lasten with two clasps.

For photographs are frames holding three that can be had for a quarter. They have dials or green mats and a choice of either gilt or narrow black frames.

Amber beads with their topaz-like coloring are modish, as they harmonize with the fashionable brown color of this season. All sorts of strings of beads, long, short and medium, are to be had in these amber beads.

Plaids are "it" in the shops and come in silks and wool, while plaid ribbons are everywhere.

Dainty chemisettes and undersleeves worn in the colonial days are reproduced now and are on sale in the lace departments.

An ostrich feather box shades from a deep burnt orange color to white and would be stunning on a flaming brunette type of woman.

Beautiful beyond compare are the pieces of filigree silver that come from Italy. They more nearly resemble a piece of delicate lace silvered over, than anything else.

For the traveler is a pair of traveling candlesticks. They look like a couple of silver saucers turned over the other. Inside are the little candlesticks to be screwed into the center of each saucer.

New designs for leather portfolios, photographs, photograph frames, bags and pocket books are Dutch in character. When illuminated the Dutch heads, or his own characteristic Holland landscapes are very effective. The designs are stamped on the leather.

For the kitchen is a soup stock kettle, every inch of which is of good sanitary ware. As is well known, the maintenance of a stock pot is of such great financial benefit that it will soon pay for itself at $3.95, for which it is sold in family sizes.

Provided with a stopcock, the contents are much more easily removed than by the laborious process of lifting and tilting the kettle.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.

It is easier to be engaged than divorced, and the expense is about a standard.

A man stands a very good chance to oppose a girl if he can get all her family to oppose the match.

A girl is so deceitful she can act as if she were a stockbroker and keep her feet warmer than any other kind.

Mysterious Circumstance.

One was pale and sallow and the other fresh and rosy. Whence the difference? She who is blushing with health uses Dr. King's New Life Pills to maintain it. They gently arouse the lazy organs, they compel good digestion and head of confusion. Try them. Only 25c, at Osgood Bros., druggists, Seventh and Broadway, and Twelfth and Washington streets.

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING.

A special meeting of the stockholders of the Central Bank of Oakland, Cal., will be held at the office of the corporation, 14th and Broadway streets, Oakland, Cal., at the hour of 8:30 P. M., on Tuesday, November 22, 1904, for the purpose of adopting new by-laws and repealing the existing by-laws.

Bids for the construction of this new road will be received at the office of the secretary of the Board of Regents until 5 p. m. Monday, October 24.

The new highway will follow, in the main, the old road which runs from the Dana street entrance eastward past the gymnasium and the chemistry building to the College avenue exit. The distance is about a half mile. The specifications for its construction have been prepared by John Galen Howard, the University architect, and carry out the general plan of the Greater University, as far as the gymnasium the road will be forty feet wide and thirty feet the remainder of

CAP AND GOWN.

Custom is Decided on By Senior College Girls.

BERKELEY, October 20.—At a meeting of the women of the senior class yesterday the question of wearing mortarboards was finally settled by deciding to wear them only on the days of University meetings. By this compromise the pretty custom of wearing the senior caps will be partially instituted and at the same time the women will not be restricted in their desire to wear hats during individual parties. On account of this, it is thought that the custom will be more generally taken up than it has been formerly.

SKULL AND TALK IN LATIN.

The purpose of the club will be somewhat similar to that of the various modern language clubs—to gain a knowledge of the conversational side of the language and to show its possibilities.
